

Wood

Our fence stain and deck stain products saturate the surface of the lumber, penetrating into the wood, leaving the fence and wood with an even, uniform coating. No back brushing is required. The products are superior to competitive products that leave runs, drips and an uneven appearance. The fact that it gives such a great finish with long lasting effects make it a consumers choice across America.